

NEWS

Pacific Science Association
VI Inter-Congress Viña Del Mar, Chile
August 7-10, 1989.

The Pacific, Bridge or Barrier?

General Symposia: — International Relations in the Pacific.
— Science, Technology and development in the Pacific Basin.

Scientific Meetings: — Botany
— Coral Reefs.
— Ecology, Conservation and Environmental.
— Economics.
— Entomology.
— Forestry.
— Freshwaters Sciences.
— Geography.
— Marine Sciences.
— Museums.
— Nutrition.
— Public Health and Medical Sciences.
— Science Communication and Education.
— Social Sciences and Humanities.
— Solid Earth Sciences.

Special Meetings.

The Congress is organized by the Institute of International Studies of the University of Chile and sponsored by the Council of Rectors of Chilean Universities.

Information: Condell 249 Santiago 9-Chile. P.O. Box 14187 Suc.21 Santiago, Chile. Cables: Interacademic; Telex 346275 Interc. Telephones: 740139-740850.

(Pacific Science Association Scientific Committees for (a) Social Sciences and Humanities and (b) Economics are chaired by Professor S.C. Hill, University of Wollongong and Professor D.M. Lamberton, University of Queensland respectively.)

ANZAAS 1988 CENTENARY CONGRESS

University of Sydney

May 16-20, 1988

The Scientific Program Committee has established the following interest groups:

Physical and Mathematical Sciences	Professor J Kelly (University of NSW)
Engineering and Applied Sciences	Professor G Rigby (University of NSW)
Biological and Medical Sciences	Associate Professor C dos Remedies (University of Sydney)
Earth and Environmental Sciences	Professor A Gilmour (Macquarie University)
Social Sciences	Dr G Poiner (University of Sydney)
Education & Communications Sciences	Ms A Moyal
Youth ANZAAS	Mrs P Keam (St George Girls' High School).

Popular Symposia

These symposia, featuring invited speakers only will address topics of concern to the general public and will be presented in such a way that the material is lively, interesting and comprehensible.

A Selection of Topics:

AIDS-Social and Ethical Implications of Anti-Viral Therapy
Environmental Awareness
Australia 1995
Inequalities in Health
The Leading Edge of Technology
The Information Society

General Symposia

These symposia will focus on topics of concern to the scholarly community but will have an interdisciplinary focus, involving several specialised interest groups and will feature invited speakers.

A Selection of Topics:

Ten Years after the Myers Report
Natural Environments — Thresholds and Limits
Biotechnology

Use of Animals in Research
Gender Constructed
Industrial Conflict: Can We Make the System Work?
The Asian Connection
Engineering for Disasters
Towards More Equitable Cities
Education for the Future
Communication and Education — Power and Equity
Death and Dying
The Media Industry in Australia

Selectional Symposia

To meet the needs of specialised interest groups, and to highlight current research progress and developments in a wide range of sciences and technologies, these sessions will feature papers offered by academics and other specialists.

Associated Activities

A range of activities will be mounted during the Congress by the following organisations:

Bureau of Industry Economics — Innovation and Economic Growth
Scientists Against Nuclear Arms — Kicking the Nuclear Habit
CSIRO Office of Space Science and Applications — Space and Global Change

Powerhouse Museum — Space Development and Lessons from Australian Experience

Institute of Biology

Australian Institute of Food Science & Technology

Address for all enquiries

Mr B O'Rourke, Organising Secretary
1988 ANZAAS Centenary Congress
118 Darlington Road
UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY NSW 2006
Telephone (02) 692 4356