Shorter Notices

Failure and Lessons Learned in Information Technology Management: An International Journal

Jay Liebowitz (Editor-in-Chief)

New York, Sydney, Tokyo, Cognizant Communication Corporation, ISBN 1088–128X

This new journal was published for the first time (Vol. 1, No. 1) in March 1997. It is devoted to failures and lessons learned in information technology management. The journal will also help to establish research issues, studies and methodologies for creating frameworks, paradigms and criteria to ensure that an information technology project is more likely to succeed than fail. It will be published four times per year.

Convergence: The Journal of Research into New Media Technologies

Julia Knight and Alexis Weedon (Eds)

Luton, John Libbey Media, ISSN 1354–8565

Convergence is devoted to research into new media technologies. The Spring 1996 issue (Vol. 2, No. 1) contains articles on 'The Book Trade and Internet Publishing', 'Nations and the Internet' and 'Audience Participation in Entertainment Monopolies'. The journal also has a book review section.

Communicatio: South African Journal for Communication Theory and Research

Pieter J. Fourie (Ed.)

Pretoria, South Africa, University of South Africa, ISSN 0250–0167

The aim of this journal is to promote the science of communication by publishing original research articles, review articles and important conference papers. For example, Vol. 22, No. 1, 1996 contained nine articles covering themes such as information technology, mass communication theory, community radio national symbols and apartheid.

Communication Research Trends: A Quarterly Review of Communication Research

W.E. Berinatski, SJ (Ed.)

St Louis, Missouri, Center for the Study of Communication and Culture, St Louis University, ISSN 0144–4646

Communication Research Trends is published by the Center for the Study of Communication